

136. MEET STEPHANIE ANSPACH

Less is more...

The philosophy of the designs from Stephanie Anspach. A Belgian designer that creates looks and items for Women who love an unique view on fashion and on the world. Nowadays we all love a good minimalistic and androgynous look. Especially me, and that's why the designs suit my personality and style perfectly.

I'm wearing her cotton striped top, a mix between a t-shirt and a shirt. And the white bootcut jeans. Both items are so strong and great to update my summer wardrobe with.

I also have two other items from her collection to show you during this season.

You can find all her designs and lookbook for the summer on her web.
